PUJ

Punta Cana International Airport

Food Court

Enjoy familiar brands inside the terminals, with choices including Wendy's, Sbarro, Nathan's, Cinnabon, Segafredo's, and Baskin-Robbins or have a drink at the Skybar.

Duty Free Americas

At Duty Free Americas, you'll find duty-free items like liquors, tobacco and others merchandise.

Parking & Transportation

Rental Car services are available on site, as are Taxis. A complimentary shuttle service is available for guests at Four Points by Sheraton at Puntacana Village. If your final destination is Tortuga Bay, you will be greeted with VIP whisking service to expedite your arrival.

Security & Immigration

To enter the Dominican Republic, a valid passport with two blank pages is required. At the customs and immigration desk, you'll receive a 30-day tourist card (US$10 fee) instead of a visa. The Dominican CESAC security procedures at PUJ follow the same guidelines as U.S. or European airports

Private Planes

Located west of the international terminal, the fixed base operations terminal at Punta Cana International Airport serves executive general aviation from international and domestic points of departure. Staffed by airport operations personnel, the FBO provides all standard general aviation and executive jet services.

PUJ is the Caribbean leading destination:

With over 5.9 million international arrivals in 2014, Punta Cana International Airport manages the largest airport in the Caribbean. Both terminals have a ramp capacity of 14 positions with a size approximate 54,000 M²

Cargo Hub:

PUJ Cargo Hub is a distribution center from South America to Europe, United States and Canada. The Hub includes infrastructural facilities, 400 m² of cold rooms with temperature from 0°C to 15°C for export. The Cargo Hub's products in transit are: flowers, fruits, vegetables, seafood, medical equipment, messaging, etc.
